

Report of Law Enforcement Officer Initiating Involuntary Examination

State of Florida, County of _____, Florida

I, _____, am a law enforcement officer certified by the State of Florida.

In my opinion, _____ appears to meet the following criteria for involuntary examination:

1. I have reason to believe said individual has a mental illness as defined by section 394.455, Florida Statutes:

"Mental illness" means an impairment of the mental or emotional processes that exercise conscious control of one's actions or of the ability to perceive or understand reality, which impairment substantially interferes with the person's ability to meet the ordinary demands of living. For the purposes of this part, the term does not include a developmental disability as defined in chapter 393, intoxication, or conditions manifested only by dementia, traumatic brain injury, antisocial behavior, or substance abuse.

AND because of the mental illness (check all that apply):

- ☐ a. Individual has refused voluntary examination after conscientious explanation and disclosure of the purpose of the examination; OR ☐ b. Individual is unable to determine for himself/herself whether examination is necessary; AND

2. Either (check all that apply):

- ☐ a. Without care or treatment said individual is likely to suffer from neglect or refuse to care for himself/herself, and such neglect or refusal poses a real and present threat of substantial harm to his/her well-being and it is not apparent that such harm may be avoided through the help of willing family members or friends or the provision of other services; OR,
☐ b. There is substantial likelihood that without care or treatment the individual will cause serious bodily harm to (check one or both)
☐ self ☐ others in the near future, as evidenced by recent behavior.

Please note: No items in the following table should be construed as restricting law enforcement officers from initiating this involuntary examination. Your responses are required and will be used by the Department to conduct data analyses, per s. 394.463(4), F.S.
